KU WOUNDED WARRIOR SCHOLARSHIP

$10,000 SCHOLARSHIP • DEADLINE TO APPLY MARCH 1, 2014

The University of Kansas is proud to offer a unique KU WOUNDED WARRIOR SCHOLARSHIP for military veterans, primary caregivers, or surviving spouses/children studying at KU.

Starting the Fall semester of 2014, KU will offer three academic scholarships up to $10,000 each, which are renewable for up to four years. The goal of the KU WOUNDED WARRIOR SCHOLARSHIP is to supplement recipients with the funds required to attend KU and to help them stay focused on their college experience.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Degree-seeking student in good academic standing or be admitted to KU for the Fall 2014 semester, and in one of the following categories:

• Honorably discharged undergraduate, graduate or Ph.D. student veteran who has a disability rating associated with injuries sustained since September 11, 2001.
• Currently serving Wounded Warrior on Active Duty, the Reserves or National Guard.
• Primary caregiver of a “Post-9/11” disabled Service member.
• Surviving spouse or child of a “Post-9/11” Service member.

For more information, please refer to the application guidelines, available at gmp.ku.edu/wws